assures, to be the author of the article and agrees to the publication in the "ZAS Papers in Linguistics (ZASPiL)".

The undersigned hereby declares the following:

- 1) I affirm that I am entitled to dispose of the rights of use to the work and that I have not made any dispositions to date that conflict with the rights granted in this agreement.
- 2) I affirm and can prove that as far as rights of third parties (e.g. of co-authors) or rights to illustrations of third parties are concerned, these rights have been transferred to me. I hereby release the ZAS, the ZASPiL editors and André Meinunger, editor-in-chief of ZASPiL, from all justified claims of third parties, including reasonable legal costs.
- 3) By accepting my contribution for publication, I grant the ZAS the simple, spatially and temporally unrestricted right (see §§ 31 ff UrhG) to the article (including associated illustrations, tables and charts) for the first and all subsequent editions and editions and allow the work to be used in the following manner (see § 32 paragraph 3 p. 3 UrhG):
To store and publish the work on the internet site, servers or other data carriers of the ZAS as well as on the publication server of the Goethe University Frankfurt am Main and on the platform for Open Access Journals of the Specialised Information Service Linguistics (FID Linguistics) „Fachinformationsdienst Linguistik“, to integrate it into databases, to make it accessible to the public via data networks and to digitally reproduce and distribute it in any form, on any media, in any quantity. The above-mentioned right of use is granted for all known as well as for all currently unknown types of reproduction and use (see §§ 31a ff UrhG). As the author, I reserve the right to use my contribution elsewhere or in any other form and to distribute it in printed and/or electronic form even after publication by the publisher without the latter's consent.
